ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today:

-Installation Service of Pastor Gloria Yi

When interviewing for the DPNC in 2018, Pastor Gloria Yi said, “I don’t know anything about the African culture, but I am an immigrant Christian and I’ve lived in many different parts of the world.”

At Hope, over the last four years, Pastor Yi has encountered, the immigrant’s experience in South America (particularly in the refugee camps), in Europe, Asia, and in the USA. And as part of a community of believers who cherish our US citizenship, we have come to also find immeasurable value in our heavenly citizenship as we are claimed by God through the laws that have been fulfilled in life, death, and resurrection of Christ, our Lord. Today, Hope Presbyterian and Pastor Gloria Yi begin their new relationship as congregation and installed pastor. They have crossed so many cross-cultural bridges, but the bridge that binds them together is the cross of Jesus Christ! We give thanks to all NCP Commissioners: Moderator Elder Shani McIlwain, Rev. Eric Forsyth, Elder Bobby Graham, Elder Nancy Turner, Rev. Yena Hwang, Rev. Tara Spuhler McCabe. The Preacher is Linda Brecht Marr.
